RE: United States V. Dmitry Guzner Cr. No. 09-087

Dear Judge Greenaway:

Please accept this letter as a formal request for a locality and program recommendation in regards to Dmitry Guzner. Mr. Guzner is a 21 year old Quinnipiac University student, who has accepted responsibility for his actions and is sentenced to a 12 months and 1 day prison term, for violation of Title 18, United States Code section 1030(a)(5)(i), Unauthorized impairment of a Protected Computer. Throughout the judicial process the defendant's family, who resides in Verona, New Jersey have been very supportive of him, and we are hopeful that during his incarceration the defendant will be able to maintain strong family ties, as well as continue his college education and long time religious practices.

At present Guzner is scheduled to surrender to Moshannon Federal Prison in Pennsylvania, before noon on July 2, 2010. Senior United States Probation Officer Renee Caggia was informed of our intent to seek the below detailed recommendation, and has expressed no objection or opposition.

Basis for this locality/program and prison assignment recommendation request.

Among the reasons for imposing a prison sentence is, "providing the defendant with needed educational or vocational training, or other correctional treatment in the most effective manner," In light of this, when a court recommends that certain rehabilitative accommodations be made available for a defendant, the Federal Bureau of Prisons must "make every effort to accommodate recommendations from courts, i.e. RDAP, locality, etc."

As put before the Court prior to sentencing, the defendant in this case, has accepted full responsibility for his actions in a timely manner, is very remorseful, and has a family who has been and will continued to be very supportive of him during his incarceration, Attachments A & B. Even more important, as it specifically applies to the defendant's rehabilitation, Mr. Guzner currently has a 3.8 GPA at Quinnipiac, works as a Designer and Cad Technician for Dan Morris Apparel, and is a long standing member of the Christ the Savior Orthodox Church, Attachments C, D, and E.

Program and locality needs met at Allenwood as opposed to Moshannon low security Federal Correctional Institution.

The defendant is currently scheduled to serve his time at Moshannon Low Security Federal Prison. Moshannon is a private/contract prison owned by Cornell Companies that is primarily used to hold criminal aliens and low-custody offenders from the Washington, DC area. More importantly, the facility is some 245 miles and 4-1/2 hours away from the defendant's home residence, and does not academic/college level or religious based programs that would contribute to this defendant's overall rehabilitation while he is incarcerated as well as his reintegration back into society as a law abiding citizen and college student, upon release, Attachments F & G.

On the other hand, Allenwood Low Security Federal Correctional Institution in White Deer Pennsylvania is 160 miles and 2-1/2 hours away from the defendant's home residence. Most important, Allen wood has a college program that the defendant can participate in while incarcerated, as well as a large Orthodox Christian Congregation. Allen wood would clearly allow the defendant to serve the sentence imposed by the court, while providing him with academic and religious programs that would enhance his rehabilitation, maintaining strong family times through visitation, and activity in the Christian Orthodox Church, Attachment H.

For the reasons set out in this letter, we are hopeful that you would issue a recommendation that Dmitry Guzner be assigned to Allen wood Federal Correctional Institution for service of his 12 month and 1 day sentence.

In closing I would like to thank you for your time and consideration in this matter. If there is any other information or documents needed for you to make a determination I will provide them as soon as possible.

Respectfully.

STATEMENT OF DMITRIY GUZNER

Honorable Judge Greenaway,

It's been more than a year since the Secret Service searched my house and I learned that I was under investigation for a DDoS attack on a Church of Scientology website. The following events, including my plea agreement, forced me to look back and give a lot of consideration to what had happened. I'm writing this letter to tell you how I feel about my case.

I am very sorry for what I had done. I got involved with the wrong group of people and participated in a criminal act. My actions hurt so many of those who care about me – my family and friends, church community, my priest Fr. Michael and my wonderful University teachers. Their love and support in this difficult time only stressed how irresponsible I was to let them down. I am sorry that the government, the Secret Service, and the court officers had to put so much effort into investigating and prosecuting me. I am sorry that because of the action I took part in, members of the Church of Scientology could have been hurt – I absolutely did not intend that.

Your Honor, I accepted my responsibility right away and did not hesitate to plead guilty. However, in various documents I have seen different interpretations of the events. Now as I face my sentencing, please let me use this letter as a chance to briefly and clearly tell you how I got involved in the attack and what I did.

In January 2008, while staying at home for the winter break, I went on digg.com, a website I used to visit to see what's new in the world of games, movies, and technology. There has always been something funny to read or watch there, too. Those days, the "funny thing" was a motivational video on behalf of the Church of Scientology (CoS) by actor Tom Cruise. I didn't know much about the CoS and used links provided right there to Scientology awareness websites. There I found some information and testimonies that really disturbed me. The people who linked these websites to digg.com claimed that the CoS is using all its immense power to suppress distribution and availability of that information. They called to join their efforts to defend "freedom of information" and in protest, to take down Scientology websites.

Looking back at those events, I'm amazed that I did not see the huge disconnect between the claimed intentions and the call to action. Unfortunately, I decided to help the group called "Anonymous" in their DDoS attack. Following the instructions on digg.com, on the night of January 17-18, I went on gigaloader.com and used it to send signals to the CoS website. I did it for a few minutes, didn't see any real impact on the CoS website, and went to bed. I've never again rejoined the attack.

It was clear to me that the purpose of the attack was to temporarily shut down the CoS website, but honestly, not for a single moment had I considered that the DDoS could cause any material damage, let alone thousands of dollars of losses. Unfortunately, because of that I didn't consider the legal implications of the attack either.

As I went back to the University after my winter break and my studies and various oncampus activities consumed my time, I stopped following the Anonymous updates, and forgot about the whole thing. The Secret Service search in my house came up as a complete shock.

As I said, I'm sorry for many reasons. But I am also sorry that my poor judgment and one terrible mistake can affect my entire future. More than anything else now, I wish I could come back to the University and continue my studies. I am very enthusiastic about the courses I'm taking and I think I'm getting pretty good at graphic design and animation. I have great relationships with my teachers. I'm involved in many on-campus community activities. I have two part-time jobs that help me pay for my day-to-day expenses and I really enjoy and value them.

Your Honor, I've learned my lesson and understand I deserve a punishment. But with your decision on August 24, please allow me go back to finish my education, get a job, and prove for the rest of my life that I'm an honest, lawful, and responsible person.

Sincerely yours,

Dmitriy Guzner

Hon. Joseph A. Greenaway United States District Judge Martin Luther King Jr. Fed. Bldg. & Courthouse Federal Square Newark, New Jersey 07101

RE: United States v. Dmitry Guzner

Dear Judge Greenaway,

My son Dmitriy Guzner awaits the sentencing hearings for his participation in the DDoS attack on a website of Church of Scientology in January 2008.

Despite the unfortunate circumstance under which I am writing this letter, I am proud and pleased to discuss Dmitriy's character. My wife and I always felt blessed to have such a son. We've been happy to watch how a lively, curious, yet kind and gentle child, he has been growing into a responsible, young man full of integrity; bright, talented student; enthusiastic member of the community; considerate and attentive son and brother. I would be happy to illustrate that all by many examples from Dmitriy's life. However, I am forced to present only the highlights of his educational achievements, work and community activities in the condensed form of resume (please see enclosed) to allow myself room to address some serious concerns I have after reading a draft of the Probation Report.

Precisely because it is absolutely out of my son's character, I was very disappointed with his participation in the DDoS attack, his misguided motives and a lack of better judgment. It was a big relief to see how immediately he recognized it as a terrible mistake and fully and profoundly regretted the whole affair. He's done the right thing – accepted his responsibility and pleaded guilty. Having said that, I believe he should be and hope will be judged exactly and only for what he has done, and only his real intentions will be considered.

Back in October, 2008, when the official information of Dmitriy's plea agreement appeared on the Internet, it was immediately picked up by national, local and foreign newspapers. The columns often contained distorted interpretations of the facts. Because Dmitriy's name has been the only one appearing in connection with the attack, they often talked about him as the mastermind and sole participant. More misrepresentations took place in innumerable Internet blogs, where he was called "cyber-terrorist", "dangerous hacker" and "active member of a hate group." A number of insulting videos, all containing his address, were posted on You-Tube. Our family was deeply affected by this "publicity". The information became available in our town, my workplace and in my daughter's school. Although hurt and genuinely concerned about our safety and well-being, we tried to disregard this campaign, assigning it to ignorance and unscrupulousness of the reporters.

I was shocked to see that almost identical approach to the facts made its way into Dmitriy's Probation Report. The "Victim's Impact" section demonstrates an obvious intention to exaggerate his involvement and maximize his personal responsibility for the attack. Furthermore, it links my son to events to which he has absolutely no connection. It implies that he stands behind indeed repelling sociopathic messages distributed via the Internet. I entrust Dmitriy's counsel Mr. Edward McQuat to show the insubstantiality of these accusations. However I am personally compelled to respond to my son's characterizations as a bigot, racist and a hate-driven hooligan, which are not only completely false, but also profoundly insulting to our family's most treasured values.

I am a descendant of the Holocaust survivors. Both, my and my wife's families have endured religious and ethnic oppressions. Dmitriy was three years old and his sister just was born when we made an uneasy decision to immigrate to the U.S.A. Our first and foremost reason was to bring up our children in a free, democratic and lawful society. In our home we have never taken these ideas for granted and raised the children as not just tolerant and open-minded in social, religious and racial issues, but with a strong belief that their position always has to be on the side of the persecuted and less fortunate. As paradoxical as it may sound, it is ultimately Dmitriy's compassion and sense of fairness, however misguided and wrongly applied, brought him to the current situation.

Your Honor, this has been a very difficult but also an immensely important year for our family – Dmitriy in particular. It brought us even closer together, not just the family members, but also friends, our church community, teachers, everybody who knows and loves my son. Many people were eager to add their testimonies to prove that what happened to Dmitriy couldn't be anything but just an unfortunate mistake. Dmitriy himself has reflected a lot on the events of January 2008, and deeply regrets what he had done. His many habits have changed. Instead of spending time in various blogs and chat-boards, he dedicates the little free time he has to his good, real – not virtual friends. Most definitely, he now much deeper values an opportunity to study, work and be with the loved ones.

Your Honor, please take a look at Dmitriy's enclosed resume. It demonstrates a promising start of a talented ambitious young man, responsible and productive member of the community. We all hope that at the time of his sentencing on August 24, you will see Dmitriy for what he really is, and your merciful decision will allow him to further grow personally and professionally and develop to his fullest potential.

Sincerely,

July 10, 2009

Dear Honorable Judge Greenaway,

I am writing this letter of character support for your consideration regarding the matter of Dmitriy Guzner who is scheduled for sentencing August 24th.

I am a professor of Interactive Digital Design at Quinnipiac University, and have the profound privilege of teaching some incredibly hardworking, creative, and intelligent students. One of those stand out students is Dmitriy Guzner.

My first introduction to Dmitriy came when he attended one of my Digital Design courses. I immediately noticed his kind demeanor. Only a few weeks into the course it was apparent that he had the skill set and work ethic to catapult him to the top of the class. A few semesters later he attended one of my higher-level Digital Design courses. In this particular work-intensive course the student is required to develop their design skills, learn to think and write critically, and be self-motivated. His above level work and thinking was an inspiration to the other students in the class.

Dmitriy is a diligent worker, creative thinker, is wonderfully talented, and has a collaborative spirit. In the eight years I've taught at Quinnipiac his work is still some of the best and I regularly present it as examples to inspire a higher caliber in other students.

Teaching young adults keeps you up to date with the newest technology and communication tools. I was hesitant at first but slowly learned how Facebook could be a wonderful tool where students would easily share their thoughts, wit, and knowledge. It is a wonderful way to get to know the students better outside of the classroom construct. Dmitriy's daily posts were always interesting, fun, and enlightening. He would regularly post photos of his daily life that routinely included his family. It is apparent from those photographs that he comes from a solid and close knit family.

It's difficult to ignore the frequent bombardment by the news of home invasions, drug addictions, alcoholism, and family abuse. Sometimes the world feels like a terrible place to live. The only consolation is that it is balanced by people who are good. I feel that Dmitriy is one of the good guys.

I feel strongly that with continued educational guidance Dmitriy will go onto to do wonderful things with his life. He is a talented, smart, kind, and thoughtful young man who has immense potential that will surely offer a plethora of good that can only add to societal wealth. He is someone I trust and hold in the highest regard. I think so highly of this young man that I wish he were my son. I don't think you could say anything more about a person's character than wanting to know this person for the rest of your life.

Thank you for your time,

Sincerely,

STATEMENT OF REV. MICHAEL MEERSON

CHRISTTHE SAVIOUR CHURCH RPAM RPHOTA CHACHTEAR

8/08/09

To whom it may concern:

Dear Sir/Madam,

This is a reference letter for Dmitriy Guzner, my young parishioner, who, as I have learned, is suspected of an illegal attack on the website of a non-profit organization.

I have known Dmitriy for more than ten years. He has actually grown up in front of my eyes, as my altar boy. Since his mother is one of our two choir directors, he has attended almost all the services and, for all these years, has served as an altar boy. Besides that, he participated in most of our parish's children's and teens' activities – in our Sunday school, rehearsals, children shows, and picnics.

Ours is an intercity parish that houses an international congregation. There are immigrants from Russia and Eastern Europe, African-Americans (those originally coming from Ethiopia), Chinese American worshipers, Lebanese Christians, as well as Christians of Jewish descent. Dmitriy is very open to multiculturalism and is friendly with everyone. He has good social skills and is loved by his friends. He usually behaves as a compassionate young person, ready to help the elderly or those with infirmities. He is also a bright, gifted and inquisitive young man, with a natural inclination for learning new things and meeting new people. When still a teenager, he enjoyed helping in designing our own parish website.

His current offence, if serious (of which I have no way of knowing) is completely out of character. I have never known Dmitriy – whether as the little Mitya or as a young adult now – to try or wish to inflict any harm or loss on any person, group of people, or organization of any type. I have never observed such tendencies in Dmitriy Guzner – having been his father confessor for all these years. Of course, he might have considered his current offence as less grave than it was, but only because, like many people of his generation, he associates computers with games and play – not because he could have intended any harm.

I would therefore call for a more compassionate approach to Dmitriy Guzner and, for giving him an opportunity to become a responsible and honest citizen – something, I am sure, he has every intention to become.

Judge Joseph A. Greenaway
United State District Court for the District of New Jersey

Dear Judge Greenaway:

I teach painting in the Department of Fine Arts at the School of the Visual Arts in Manhattan. The experience of teaching young college students led me to lead a discussion group for the preteens and teens at our parish, Christ the Savior Orthodox Church. In the group, we talk about cultural activities, social issues and Church teachings. The discussion group started while Dmitriy Guzner was in high school, and he continued to participate often in his college year during long weekends' visits. I have known Dmitriy since he was five to be a gentle, soft spoken and sensitive young man. He is by far the best student in my group for the clarity in his thinking. I can remember many times he corrected other students and convinced them of what was right concerning real life problems, and the integrity of his answers was always supported by his upright spirit.

Dmitriy's mother, Catherine, is a pillar of our Church; she is our choir director and a catechism teacher for the elementary school aged children. As to the influence of Dmitriy's father, we only have to see Dmitriy's interest and his college studies to find he is the son of a talented graphic designer. Dmitriy and our son served at the altar together. We have trusted him to take care of our pets and home when we went away. We have spent Thanksgivings together. The Guzners are a family we all envy because of their closeness and for the amount of time they have always managed to make to be together, even spending summers together, rather than the children being sent away to camp. As a graduation gift, Dmitriy and his father went on a cruise so they could spend that much more time alone before he went away to college. They are a family that sits down and eats every dinner together.

Therefore it was of great shock and distress to our community to hear of what happened. I and others in the community have to take some responsibility for not foreseeing this. In a larger sense we all fail in some way towards all the young people around us. For not understanding and communicating better with them, for not eliminating their sense of isolation. I dread the day my high school son goes away to college. I have seen, in my twenty years of teaching freshman classes in various colleges, how easy it is for young people to fall sway to others. They err even when they sometimes think they are doing the right thing. It is so difficult to navigate this world when first leaving home and the slippery slope of the internet just adds to it.

Clearly, what Dmitriy was involved in was wrong, but I beg you, honorable Judge, to be merciful in your sentencing. Please do not allow a one time mistake to be punished so severely and alter Dmitriy's bright future. Dmitriy regrets deeply what he has done and has learned what weight each of his actions can carry. With the strong support from the Church, his parents, his teachers and finally your help, he can be on his way to become a light of his future community.

Sincerely, David Chow

America, as well as articles about various aspects of Orthodoxy.

In American Orthodoxy, lay people have always played an important role, complementing the service of the Church hierarchy, and our parish is not an exception. We know that the Orthodox Church lives by its communion with its Lord and Chief Jesus Christ, who has said unto His disciples: "I am the vine and ye are the branches... As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine; no more can ye, except ye abide in me" (John 15:4-5). And so we, who partake of Our Lord, constitute together one body, according to the apostle's words, "for the body is not one member, but many" (1 Cor. 12:14). Thus our web page narrates not only the events of the parish's life as such, but also tells what is most important in the everyday life of some of our parishioner and introduces visitors to their creative works.

Introduction

Welcome to the Low Security Correctional Institution (LSCI), ALLENWOOD, Pennsylvania. LSCI Allenwood is part of the Federal Correctional Complex (FCC), Therefore most of the policies and programming will be consistent throughout the complex.

This Inmate Information Handbook is provided to help you understand the operation of this institution, the Bureau of Prisons (BOP), and our policies and procedures.

The material in this Handbook will provide assistance in understanding what you will be encountering when entering prison, and hopefully assist you in your successful adjustment to life at this facility. Additionally, this handbook can serve as a handy resource of information you may need throughout your incarceration. If you know of any reason you cannot function at this institution, you should immediately inform staff.

This booklet is not designed to answer all your questions; therefore, you are encouraged to address your additional questions to your Counselor, Case Manager, Unit Manager, or Unit Officer, who can further explain policies and procedures to you. You are also encouraged to supplement this information with knowledge obtained through reading Institution Supplements (LSCI Allenwood policies) and Program Statements (BOP policies) available in the Law Library.

I encourage you to read and review this handbook and to participate in all the programming available at this facility. This will assist you in having a smooth transition into a structured environment.

A $25.00 program completion award is credited to each student's commissary account upon successful completion of the GED Exam after being enrolled for a minimum of 30 days. A $10.00 completion award is credited to each student's account upon successful completion of the TABE Exam after being enrolled for a minimum of 30 days. The maximum allowable amount is $25.00. Monetary awards are contingent upon an acceptable financial responsibility status.

VCCLEA and PLRA: The Violent Crime Control Law Enforcement Act (VCCLEA) mandates that inmates with a date of offense on or after September 13, 1994, but before April 26, 1996, lacking a high school credential, must participate in and make satisfactory progress towards attainment of a General Education Development (GED) credential in order to vest earned Good Conduct Time (GCT).

The Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA) provides that in determining GCT awards, the Bureau of Prisons will consider whether an inmate with a date of offense on or after April 26, 1996, has earned or is making satisfactory progress towards attainment of a GED credential.

TESTING: TABE/SABE tests are administered to those inmates who do not have a GED Certificate or high school diploma shortly after their arrival at L.S.C.I. Allenwood. The TABE test (English) and SABE test (Spanish) measures academic achievement in Math, Vocabulary, Reading Comprehension, Spelling and Language.

ENGLISH AS A SECOND LANGUAGE (ESL): The Crime Control Act of 1990 requires that all non-English speaking federal prisoners participate in an ESL Program. In accordance with Program Statement 5350.24, ESL Classes are mandatory for all federal prisoners who have limited English proficiency skills. Pre-Trial inmates, all study and observation cases, excludable aliens and sentenced aliens with an I.N.S. Deportation Detainer are exempt from mandatory enrollment.

Certificates and $25, credited to the student's commissary account, are awarded for successful completion. Students are required to pass a standardized multiple choice test to demonstrate proficiency in English equivalent to the eighth grade.

ADDITIONAL PROGRAMS OFFERED: VT (Vocational Training), ACE (Adult Continuing Education), College/Correspondence Courses, Parenting, and Job Search Skills are non-mandatory programs offered through the Education Department. Culinary Arts VT, Office Automation VT, Cook Apprenticeship, and Housekeeping Apprenticeship are also available. Contact an Education Department staff member for more information regarding these programs.

Typewriters are provided; however, inmates must purchase typewriter ribbons and correction ribbons from Commissary. Manual typewriters are provided for inmates who do not purchase ribbons from Commissary. A copy machine is located in the Law Library for inmate use. Copies are purchased at a cost of .15 cents per page. Inmates must have funds added to their Commissary cards through the Trust Fund Department staff in order to use the copy machines.

The library is open from 7:30 a.m. - 10:30 a.m. , 11:30 p.m. - 3:30 p.m., and 4:30 p.m. - 8:30 p.m., Monday through Friday. The library is also open from 7:30 a.m. - 3:30 p.m., on Saturday.

Low Security Correctional Institution Allenwood

nmate mailing address

Allenwood, Low Security

PO Box 1000

White Deer, PA 17887

Note: Its part of the Allenwood complex which includes a low, FCI Medium, USP Max, Special Confinement Unit and Camp about a mile or so from here. LSCI Allenwood is primarily a INS Immigration Compound, so 85% are non US citizens.

Prison Talk > U.S. REGIONAL FORUMS > FEDERAL PRISON SYSTEM > Federal Prisons > Allenwood FCI - Low & Medium > FCI

Is not well suited for those that have an above average education. There are no opportunities for those who are post graduates. Allenwood offers GED (equal to 7th grade in NY state), ESL (English as second language), adult continued education-run by other inmates, drafting, office automation and correspondence, college program through a local business institution. The max you can get is your Associates Degree and it is at the cost of the inmate. GED and ESL are mandatory for those who don't have a high school diploma or greater. Those who refuse are punished with deduction of good time and restriction on commissary.

Work Details

Work rectails

Work ranges from Education tutors, Orderlies, Clerks, Facilities (electric, plumbing, landscape, painting, carpentry), Landry, Food services, Recreational Orderlies, Compound cleaning (outside), trash and Unit Cleaning Staff. UNICOR is at this location and they make tables and chairs. This place is designed for about 900 people but there is almost 1,400 people here. Work ranges from 4-8 hour days, some work 7 days a week, some only 4. Pay is 5 grades: 5 those without GED's max pay is $5.25 month

- 4 $ .12 hour
- 3 $ .24 hour
- 2 $ .48 hour 1 $ .96 hour

UNICOR ranges from $ .32 an hour to $1.10 an hour depending on whether the work is demanding or not. Clerk jobs (like mine) are considered the most prized jobs and the highest paid.

There is a gym, outdoor and indoor weight room, treadmills, bikes (stationary) spinning class, outdoor track, soccer field, softball field, Italian Bowling (botchy pits), handball courts, outdoor basketball, horseshoes, indoor basketball and indoor soccer. We also have a leisure center with table soccer, ping pong, 3 pool tables, music practice rooms, painting classes and other artwork.

Medical

I personally would rate the medical care a 2 out of 10....10 being the highest. I have had problems with health services. So I try to avoid them. Worse then clinical care probably like most military medical centers.

Visiting is Friday thru Sunday and is based on a point system. 1 point for Friday and 2 points for Saturday and Sunday. Each person gets 12 points per month. Hours are 7:30 am to 3:00 pm. During warm weather you can sit on the patio or inside a large room. Vending machines are available as well as a meeting room and children's play area. SHU wear orange and have to sit closest to the visiting desk and can't get up until they are leaving. There is limited contact but visits are face to face. You may hug and kiss when the visit starts and again when leaving.

Food Services

would rate it pretty good. Pienty of food but taste quality depends on who the cooks are. Since this place houses over 75 different ethnic groups the meals vary. Always have soup and salad bar. 3 meals a day Monday thru Friday and 2 meals on Saturday and Sunday with coffee hour on weekend mornings. Meals start 6-7 am, 11 am-12 pm, 5:15-6:30 pm. Meals are on rotation with the cleanest unit goes first (4 units).

Commissary

Commissary
A commissary list was included with this location. When I am able to scan this, I will post it along with this information.
Each inmate is afforded the privilege to shop once per week. The inmate must be present in Commissary when called to shop or he will forfeit his shopping privileges for the week. Sales are scheduled by the last 2 digits of the first 5 numbers in the inmate register number (exp. 12345-012...45 would be number). The schedule at this location goes like this. Monday 00-25, Tuesday 26-50, Wednesday 51-75, Thursday 76-99.

Library

Legal library is always sbusy and I guess it is complete. I personally have not used it since I still have a lawyer. Most here do Leisure Library is stocked 100% on donations. There is a semi-good stock mostly geared towards lower education block. Not much in the way of real research books. Since I study politics (international) and history there is little that interests me. We do have access to a local public library. Only 3 request at a time and we can keep the book for 3 weeks.

RDAP

Never heard of it.

Living Conditions

Living is cube style in large open dorm. There is about 325 men per unit. Most dorms are 3 man with a few 2 man cubes, Sanitation is strict, very demanding-military style. We have one bin under the bed for clothing (for 3 men), 5 foot locker for personal items, 4 hook hangers for clothing and 6 desks. The 2 men cubes are the same but no bunks or bins.

Racial/Age make-up

One of the most diverse places in the BOP. Only about 300 or so are from the USA. The make up is about 75 or so countries and over 80 languages to dialects. Primary languages are English, Spanish, French, Korean, Russian and German. We have a large Muslim and Arab population as well as Dominican and Caribbean population. Age ranges from 16 to 90. Majority of foreigners are in their 30-40's. Most Muslims are black and have poor hygiene. There is a large Nation of Islam following (militant-political Islamic movement). There is a large Christian (English and Spanish) following and about 20-30 Jews mostly from Russia.

No computers for personal work. Typewriters are mostly out dated for legal work only. Clerks are the only others who have typewriters. People must buy their own ribbons and correction tape.

ines per unit-2 before 4:30 pm. Limited 15 minutes every 30 minutes, 300 minutes per month at $ .20 per minute, $3.00 per 15 minute phone call.

Furloughs are rare and no idea how often (have only been here since Aug 03).

3 pair pants, 3 button shirts, shoes, heavy jacket, 2 towels, two sets of sheets, two blankets, pillow, 5 t-shirts, 5 socks, 5 boxers, winter hat and gloves. Soap, razors, shampoo, toothbrush and toothpaste every other week.

Items that can be sent in imited letters, pictures, soft cover books and magazines, hard cover books and newspapers from publisher or book store ONLY. Money Orders now are sent to an Iowa address, only.

Parole Hearings

Unsure but they do have INS hearings every Tuesday.

Religious Groups

There is a strong Christian following as both Chaplin's are Christians, one Non-denomination and other former Baptist minister and Lt Corporal in Air force Reserve, (Chaplin in military). Prison Ministry has strong participation. Outside contracts for Catholic, Orthodox, Jewish and Muslim. But also have Native American, Hindu, Buddhist, Jehovah Witness, Mormon, and Sikh. Have resources for 7th day adventure, Eastern Orthodox as well as Yoga and Meditation groups. Muslim service on average attends about 100, Christian total (Spanish and English) about 400, Jewish 12-24, Hindu about 10, Buddhist about 12-20. This chapel is going to become the only BOP place to have an in house Seminary training with connection to outside seminary and various church involvements. Out of all of the groups the Islamic are the least liked. Most are blacks who use Islam to hide behind sort of a racial protection. But most only pretend to be; only about 50% are truly Islamic from Middle East. I myself am a Christian Jew

Parenting Programs Yes mostly outside contract through education.

Marriage Workshops Something is offered however I have no details since I am single.

We are allowed to walk compound on Saturday and Sundays and weekdays we have controlled 10 minute moves.

Have been at LSCI Allenwood from 8/03 to current.

can you tell me where can I find photos of people who are in L.S.C.I Allenwood?????

10-17-2007, 02:06 PM

Thank you very much for the detailed info. It's so hard to find this stuff. My husband will be there soon - not looking fwd to making regular 6.5 hour drives, but I'll do whatever it takes. Do you know the name of the Retired Chaplain? I'm the the Air Force right now (and seminary) training to be a Chaplain, and he'd probably be a great point of contact for me - for more reasons than one, now.

That was so great and informative that I read the whole thing even though I have no ties or connection to anyone there---lol! Thanks, kintml2u (http://prisontalk.com/forums/member.php?u=12)! It would be fantastic to find this kind of detail and specifics about all of the facilities instead of the barely there info from the BOP. Or is there somewhere like that already? Please let me know if anyone knows. Thanks!

You should be hearing from him very soon! It takes about a week to hear from them. It takes time to get his paperwork processed and approved. Don't worry, he is fine but can't get ahold of you for a little while but you will hear from him very soon!
